Dear Governor Cooper:

We can stay warm in the winter--and cool in the summer--without the ACPL. Duke may not be able to make the same big profits with an energy system based on solar and wind power, but the rest of us will be just fine.

Let's not get confused about who benefits from perpetuating our dependence on fossil fuels. It's Duke and its shareholders.

For the great majority of us, from all across North Carolina, a renewable energy future is a bright one. That's true for the people down east, and it's true out here in the mountains.

Please say no to Duke.
